Barnes & Noble is partnering to have Linda's book "Women Lead the Way: Your Guide to Stepping up to Leadership and Changing the World" available for sale, with a portion of the proceeds also going to End Polio Now.

LINDA TARR-WHELAN

WILL DISCUSS HER BOOK

"Women Lead the Way: Your Guide to Stepping up to Leadership and Changing the World."

Her presentation provides eye-opening facts and figures to decisively dispel the myths that still hold women back and shows women how to build their confidence and skills to pioneer a distinctive approach to leadership, one that emphasizes collaboration, communication, and consensus. The proven tipping point, surprisingly, is just 30% - when women's representation at the top reaches 30%, real change starts to happen.

About Linda Tarr-Whelan

Former Ambassador Linda Tarr-Whelan is a Demos Distinguished Senior Fellow and Director of the Women's Leadership Initiative. Her book Women Lead the Way: Your Guide to Stepping up to Leadership and Changing the World, published in September 2009, is in its second printing. She served as Ambassador to the UN Commission on the Status of Women in the Clinton Administration and as Deputy Assistant to President Jimmy Carter for Women's Concerns in the White House.

Named as one of the 50 most powerful women in Washington by Ladies Home Journal, she was Administrative Director of the New York State Department of Labor, Policy Director for AFSCME, AFL-CIO, Government Relations Director and Chief Lobbyist for the National Education Association, President/CEO of the Center for Policy Alternatives, and with her husband, the Managing Partner of Tarr-Whelan & Associates, Inc, an international management consultancy.

We look forward to seeing you at this special event.
